TREASURY

Our balance is $27,089.50
This includes deposits over expenses for the Telluride 2020 trip of $21,630.20
As discussed at the October meeting, the club made a $250 charitable donation to the Lighthouse organization.

MEMBERSHIP

We have 40 members.

If you have changes to your address, email or phone number, contact Barb Pasciolla, 611 Catalpa, Royal Oak, MI 48067 bpasciolla@yahoo.com.

Welcome new members. Charlotte Cooper, Sherry Newton and Kai Denski.

Lighthouse Donations

The SkiCruiser Board Members made a decision to donate $250 to Lighthouse Organizaton (see Treasury above).

In addition, any member wishing to donate to Lighthouse can bring toys, household items, personal grooming products, clothing or $$$ can bring their donations to the Holiday Dinner at the Clawson Steak House in December.

Look Forward To:

- Holiday Dinner December 11, 6:00 pm
- Motown Museum Tour in March (need 20 people for tour)
- 2019 Ski Swaps. See Flyer for dates and locations.

Good and Welfare:

- Wishing Janet well as she recoups from back surgery.
- John (Woody) Helwig's got a new 2019 Ford Fusion.
- Woody also flew to Washington to visit Mark Lott. Toured the San Juan Islands. Mark says HI to all.
- Mark and Lynn hit 15 states on their Road Trip in September. Highlight was Branson Missouri
- Barb Passiola trip to Charleston SC turned out to be at Asheville NC because of Hurricane Dorian.
- Bill and Cathy Korreck went to NY State

Events

The B-52s 40th Anniversary Tour with OMD & Berlin. MEADOW BROOK AMPHITHEATRE SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 14 @ 7pm

To show that the SkiCruisers aren't a "Deadbeat Club", 9 of us met to tailgate before the show. It was all "Good Stuff"! Weather was great, full moon was great, ear protection was great.

Holiday Dinner
